Now Offering Luggage Forwarding For Domestic & International Destinations

Forwarding luggage is convenient

You can have your luggage picked up at a scheduled time from your home, business or hotel and delivered directly to your destination, avoiding having to haul your luggage to and from the airport and bypass long check-in lines. Forwarding your luggage provides total travel convenience.

Forwarding luggage is guaranteed

With Craters & Freighters of San Diego, you will have peace of mind in knowing that your luggage is insured and will arrive on time guaranteed.

How luggage forwarding works

By forwarding your luggage, you simply bring your luggage and sports equipment to your front door, where it is picked up by Craters & Freighters and/or their agent. You no longer have to haul heavy suitcases or cumbersome sports equipment to and from the airport.

Your forwarding requirements will be processed by Craters & Freighters professionally trained staff right over the phone. You will choose class of service, pick up times and custom insurance amounts for each item. Based on your selections, a total shipment price will be given before you confirm the shipment.
